DEFINITIONS

1. “NOC” means the National Olympic Committee of a South East Asian Country that has been accepted as a member of the South East Asian Games Federation.

2. “HOST NOC” means the National Olympic Committee that has been entrusted with the Honor of hosting the SEA Games.

3. “FEDERATION” means the South East Asian Games Federation.

4. “COUNCIL” means the Council of the South East Asian Games Federation.

5. “DELEGATE” means a person nominated to the Council of the South East Asian Games Federation by an NOC.

6. “EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE” means the Committee set up by the Council under Rule 11.

7. “SEA GAMES” means the South East Asian Games.

8. “SOUTH EAST ASIA” means the whole territory comprising the following countries: Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Timor Leste, Thailand, and Vietnam.

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

1. The SEA Games shall be held every two years in between the years fixed for celebrations of the Olympic Games and the Asian Games.

2. The SEA Games shall be numbered from the first SEAP Games in Bangkok 1959.

3. The direction of the SEA Games shall be vested in the Council of the Federation.

4(a). The honor of holding the SEA Games shall be entrusted to the NOC of each country in rotation in alphabetical order, four (4) years in advance.

(b). An NOC unable to accept the honor of holding the SEA Games in its turn shall inform the Council not later than one year after the Games had been awarded. The honor of holding the Games shall then be entrusted to the NOC of the Country next in the order of rotation.

(c). If after the end of the SEA Games the next host country cannot stage the Games, the outgoing President shall call a meeting to decide on the country to host the next SEA Games.

5(a). The SEA Games is the exclusive property of the SEA Games Federation which owns all rights relating thereto. In particular, and without limitation, the rights relating to their organization, exploitation, broadcasting and reproduction by any means whatsoever.
(b) All profits and funds derived from the holding of the SEA Games shall belong to the Host NOC.

(c) Any emblem and mascot created for the SEA Games may not be used for commercial purposes in the territory of an NOC, without the latter’s prior written approval.

6 The Council of the Federation is responsible for:

First - Ensuring the regular celebration of the SEA Games;

Second - Making them worthy of the glorious history and of high ideals that inspire the Olympic Games;

Third - Encouraging the organization of sports competitions generally, and to guide, influence, and lead amateur sport with the following aims:

- to promote the development of those physical and moral qualities which are the basis of sport;
- to educate young people through sport in a spirit of better understanding between each other and of friendship thereby helping to build a better and more peaceful world;
- to spread the Olympic principles throughout South East Asia thereby creating goodwill in the region; and
- to bring together the athletes of South East Asia in a biennial sport festival.

MEMBERSHIP

7(a) The Federation shall consist as of the founding year in June 1959 of the National Olympic Committees of the six (6) founder countries of the SEA Games, namely, MYANMAR, KAMPUCHEA, LAOS, MALAYA, THAILAND AND VIETNAM, each of which shall be a member of the Federation.

(b) As from 31st August 1963, the 11 States of Malaya together with the States of Sabah, Sarawak and Singapore became Malaysia.

(c) As from 9th August 1965 the State of Singapore ceased to be a State of Malaysia and became the independent Republic of Singapore and its NOC continued to be a member of the Federation.

(d) As from 5th February 1977 the NOCs of the Republic of Indonesia and the Republic of Philippines became members of the Federation.

(e) As from 10th November, 1977 the NOC of Brunei Darussalam became a member of the Federation.

(f) As from 2003 the NOC of East Timor became a member of the Federation.

(g) An NOC of any country in South East Asia wishing to join the Federation shall apply to the President of the Federation, who shall place the application, with full facts relating to its bona fide before the Council for its decision. On acceptance of its application, the NOC shall become a member of the Federation.
8(a) Each NOC shall be allowed to nominate not more than three delegates (and where possible at least one must belong to the opposite gender) to the Council of the Federation. Such delegates shall be nationals of the country of the NOC. NOC in such manner shall choose the delegates to the Council of the Federation as they may respectively prescribe.

(b) A delegate shall serve on the Council until their successors are nominated by the NOC concerned.

(c) Any person ceasing to be a delegate shall ipso facto cease to hold office in the Federation.

9 Each NOC shall have only one vote.

10(a) An outgoing President shall be an Honorary President; he/she shall have the privileges of a Counselor. This rule shall have retroactive effect from the 1st SEAP Games.

(b) The Council may also elect as Honorary Members those who have rendered outstanding service to the SEA Games and/or the SEA Games Federation. They may attend General Meetings without voting rights. Such membership shall be nominated by his/her respective NOC and be terminated at the request of the NOC of the Member concerned. Each NOC shall have a maximum of 2 Honorary Members. Nominations must be submitted to the Executive Committee for consideration for recommendation to the Council. Honorary Membership shall lapse after 8 years.

(c) The President, Honorary Secretary and the Treasurer are to be elected by the Federation from nominees put up by the Host NOC and shall hold office from the end of one SEA Games to the end of the next Games.

(d) In the absence of the President, or while he/she is unable to act, the Honorary Secretary, shall have the powers of the President and shall act in his/her place. If the president dies or vacates his/her office, the same procedure shall be adopted until a new President is formally chosen.

(e) The Chief of Office of the SEAGF Office under Rule 14A.2(b) shall be a member of the Council during his/her term of office as Chief of Office.”

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

11(a) An Executive Committee shall be formed to facilitate the management of the affairs of the Federation. It shall be composed of a Chairperson, 3 Vice-Chairpersons, an Honorary Secretary, and one member from each of the NOCs in the Federation.

(b) Except for the third Vice-Chairperson stated in Rule 11(e), the members of the Executive Committee shall hold office for two years, renewable once for two years.

(c) The Chairperson and a Vice-Chairperson of the Executive Committee shall be appointed by the host country, and a Vice-Chairperson to be held by the next host country. All shall be in office for the period of two years.

(d) The first Vice-Chairperson and the Honorary Secretary of the Executive Committee shall be appointed by the Chairperson, and shall have no voting rights in the Committee.

(e) The Chief of Office of the SEAGF Office shall be a member of the Executive Committee, with voting rights in the Committee, and shall hold such office in the Committee during his/her term of office as Chief of Office.

12 The Executive Committee shall carry out such duties as are assigned to it by the Council from time to time. It shall keep the records of the Council and see that the Rules and Regulations of the Council are observed and carried out. It shall also draw up the agenda for the meetings of the Council.

13 Either the Executive Committee or the President alone may take action to make a decision where circumstances do not permit such action or decision to be taken by the Council. However, such action or decision shall be subject to ratification by the Council at its next meeting.

STANDING COMMITTEES

14 There shall be five (5) Standing Committees in the SEA Games Federation.

14.1 The five (5) Standing Committees in the SEA Games Federation with the number of members are as follows:

(e) If and when deemed necessary by the Chief of Office, a Director or Chief Executive Officer is to be appointed when the volume of work increase in the SEAGF Office.

(f) The Chief of Office is to report the SEAGF Office operations at the Executive Committee Meetings and Council Meetings, and, where necessary, seek approval of the Council on matters which require Council’s approval.

MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL, EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND COMMITTEES

15(a) The Council shall meet every two (2) years at the venue of the SEA Games, but the President shall summon a special meeting at any time upon the written request of not less than three (3) NOCs.

(b) Meetings of the Executive Committee may be held at any time; decided upon by its Chairman.

(c) There shall be quorum of the Council or the Executive Committee if not less than six (6) NOCs are represented at the meeting.

(d) Each member of the Council, the Executive Committee or any committee of the Federation shall have a vote.

(e) Any notice for the meeting of the Council, the Executive Committee or any committee of the Federation shall be given in writing, sent by prepaid registered mail, which notice shall be sent to the members of the Council, the Executive Committee or any committee of the Federation not less than thirty (30) calendar days before such Meeting. If the President or the Committee Chairman convening the Meeting considers that the Meeting due to urgent matter(s) should be held immediately, notice shall be sent aforesaid to the members of the Council, the Executive Committee or any committee of the Federation not less than fourteen (14) calendar days before the Meeting.

(f) Resolution of the Meeting of the Council, Executive Committee or any Committee of the Federation shall be adopted only by majority vote.

POSTAL VOTE

16 A resolution may, with the concurrence of the President or its Chairperson, be submitted to a vote by post of the Council or the Executive Committee as the case may be. If the majority is in favor of the resolution, the resolution shall be deemed carried and it shall be as effective as if it had been a resolution passed at duly convened meeting of the Council or the Executive Committee.

ALTERATION OF RULES

17(a) The Rules and Regulation of the SEA Games may be altered only if not less than two-thirds of the NOCs represented at a meeting of the Council vote in favor of the alteration.

(b) The By-laws may be altered by the Executive Committee provided two-thirds of the NOCs represented at a meeting of the Executive Committee vote in favor of the alteration.

HEADQUARTERS

18 The President for the tenure of his/her office shall fix the Headquarters of the Federation.

NATIONAL OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

19 The NOC shall be the only official body, in its own country for all matters connected with the SEA Games. All arrangements concerning the SEA Games and all communications on such matters shall be addressed to it.

SUPREME AUTHORITY

20 The Council is the final arbiter on all questions concerning the SEA Games.

REGULATIONS FOR THE CELEBRATION OF THE SEA GAMES

21(a) The Council shall decide the date and country for the celebration of the next SEA Games. It shall entrust the holding of the Games to the NOC of the country concerned. The Host NOC may delegate the duties with which it has been entrusted to a special Organizing Committee chosen by itself, and whose officials shall henceforth correspond directly with the Executive Committee of the Federation. The power of this Organizing Committee shall cease at the end of the Games.

(b) The Host NOC shall give a guarantee in writing that the Games will be held by it in strict accordance with the Federation Rules.
TIME, LOCATION AND DURATION OF THE SOUTH EAST ASIAN GAMES

22(a) The SEA Games shall, as far as possible, take place every two years in between the years fixed for celebrations of the Olympic Games and the Asian Games.

(b) The time of year during which the SEA Games are to be held is not permanently fixed but will be proposed to the Council by the Organizing Committee through the Host NOC. The Council alone makes the decision.

(c) The period of the SEA Games shall not exceed twelve (12) days, including the time for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies.

VENUES OF THE GAMES

23 The Host NOC shall select suitable competition venues for each sport in the program on the approval of the Council.

PRIVILEGES AND DUTIES OF THE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

24 The Organizing Committee of the Host NOC shall be responsible for the SEA Games and shall make all the necessary arrangements subject to the approval of the Executive Committee. It shall as soon as possible after the Games, submit a full and complete printed or cyclostyled report to the council.

INVITATION AND FORMS

25(a) The invitations to take part in the Games shall be sent out by the Organizing Committee on the instruction of the Council. They shall be addressed to the NOCs of each country and drawn up in the following terms:

‘In accordance with the instructions given by the Council the Organizing Committee of the South East Asian Games of 20__ has the honor to invite you to take part in the competitions and celebrations which will take place at ______________ from ___ to ______________.

(b) All documents (invitations, entries, entrance tickets, programs, etc.) printed during the Games as well as the badges shall bear the number of the SEA Games and the name of the City where it is celebrated.

FLAG AND EMBLEM

26(a) Both in the stadium and its neighborhood, the Federation Flag must be freely flown, with the flags of the competing nations. A large Federation Flag must fly in the Stadium during the Sea Games from a flagpole in the area where it shall be hoisted at the moment the Games are declared opened and lowered when they are declared closed.

(b) The Federation Flag shall be of a height of two meters and width of three meters. It shall have a light blue background with ten bright yellow gold rings in the middle. The rings shall be approximately 3/6 of the height.
(c) The light blue colored background means the water that surrounds, or the sky that covers the South East Asian countries.

The bright yellow gold rings symbolize the ten original South East Asian countries. They are intertwined to denote friendship, brotherly love and unity of purpose. See the Appendix for the geographic and graphic details of the emblem. If additional nations are added, or if some are deleted the original design of the Flag shall remain unchanged. No attempt will be made to identify any particular nation with any particular ring. The Flag is completely reversible.

OPENING CEREMONY

The Sovereign or Head of State, or his /her representative, who has been invited to open the SEA Games, is received at the entrance to the Stadium by the President of the Federation and by the President of the Organizing Committee. The two Presidents shall present their colleagues to the Sovereign or the Head of the State or his/her representative.

The Sovereign or the Head of the State, or his/her representative, is then conducted to the Royal Box where he/she is greeted with the National Anthem of his/her country.

The parade of the athletes then takes place. Each contingent dressed in its official uniform must be preceded by a shield bearing the name of its country and accompanied by its national flag (the countries being in alphabetical order except that the country organizing the Games shall be the last). Only those participating in the Games and not more than five (5) officials shall be permitted to take part in the parade.

The contingents shall salute the Sovereign or Head of State, or his/her representative, by turning their heads towards his/her box. The flags of the countries participating shall be furnished by the Organizing Committee and shall be of equal size.

Each contingent after completing its march around the Stadium shall line up in the center of the ground in a column, its shield and flag facing the Tribune of Honor.

The members of the Council of the Federation and the Organizing Committee then form up the Tribune of Honor. The President of the Organizing Committee mounts the Tribune of Honor and delivers a speech at the end of which he/she invites the Sovereign or Head of State, or his/her representatives to proclaim the Games open. The latter rises and says:

   'I declare open the South East Asian Games for the____ time celebrating the Games of the South East Asia.'

Immediately a fanfare of trumpets is sounded during which the Federation Flag is slowly hoisted. Pigeons are released followed by a salute of guns. The flame then arrives by a courier and after circling the track the sacred fire is lit. The Sports Hymn is sung during which members of the Council of the Federation and the Organizing Committee return to their seats.

Immediately afterwards the Oath is taken by the athletes. A representative of the country where the Games are taking place advances to the foot of the Tribune of Honor accompanied by the Flag bearers of his/her country. He/she mounts the Tribune of Honor and holding the Flag in his/her right hand and surrounded by the bearers of the flags of all the other countries arranged in a semicircle around him/her, he/she pronounces the following oath on behalf of all the assembled athletes:
“I swear that we will take part in the South East Asian Games in fair competition respecting the regulations which govern them and with the desire to participate in the true spirit of amateur sportsmanship for the honor of our countries and for the glory of sport”.

The choir sings the National Anthem. The athletes then leave the Stadium by the shortest route. The ceremony then comes to an end and the competitions may begin, unless the afternoon had been set aside for a sports display or some such appropriate demonstration.

VICTORY CEREMONY

28 The medals shall be presented by the Guest of Honor of the President of the Federation or his/her representative, who must be a member of the Council of the Federation, during the Games if possible immediately after the event at a place where the competition took place and in the following manner:

The competitors who have been judged first, second and third shall take their places, in their sport costumes, on a stand facing the Tribune of Honor, with the winner slightly above the second who is on his/her right, and the third who is on his/her left.

The flag of the country of the winner shall be hoisted on the central flagpole and those of the second and third on adjoining flagpoles on the right and left as they face the arena. Meanwhile, the abbreviated National Anthem of the country of the winner is played and the competitors and the spectators shall face the flags.

CLOSING CEREMONY

29 The Closing Ceremony must take place in the Stadium after the last event. The bearers of the flags of the competing nations and the shield bearers march into the arena in single file in the same order as for the Opening Ceremony and take up their positions in a semicircle behind the Tribune of Honor. All the participating Contingents also march into the arena and take up their positions as for the Opening Ceremony. The Sovereign or Head of State, or his/her representative pronounces the closing of the Games in the following words:

“I declare the South East Asian Games closed and I call upon the youth of the South East Asian countries to assemble two years from now at ____________ there to celebrate the________ South East Asian Games. May they display cheerfulness and concord so that the Sports Torch may be carried on with even greater eagerness, courage and honor for the good of humanity throughout the ages.”

A fanfare is then sounded and the Sacred Fire is extinguished. The Federation Flag is slowly lowered from the flagpole and carried from the arena. The flag bearers, shield bearers and competitors then march out to appropriate music by the bands.

GENERAL RULES OF THE SOUTH EAST ASIAN GAMES

30 To be eligible for participation in the SEA Games, a competitor must comply with the SEA Games Federation Statutes and Rules as well as Rule 45 and the By-law to Rule 45 of the Olympic Charter.

NATIONALITY OF COMPETITOR
31 Only nationals of the country of the NOC shall be qualified to represent the NOC in the Games. All disputes relating to the determination of the country, which a competitor may represent in the Sea Games, shall be resolved by the Executive Committee in accordance with the By-law to Rule 46 of the Olympic Charter.

AGE LIMIT

32 There must be no age limit for participation in any event, except for those specifically approved by the SEA Games Executive Committee in order to cater to any specific requirements.

MEDICAL CODE

33(a) Doping Violation as defined by the WADA Code is forbidden.

(b) All competitors are liable to medical control and examination carried out in conformity with the rules of the International Olympic Committee Medical Commission, the WADA Anti-Doping Code and Explanatory Documents.

(c) Competitors in sports restricted to women must comply with the prescribed tests for femininity when needed.

(d) Any competitor refusing to submit to a medical control or examination or who is found guilty of Anti-doping shall be excluded from the Games.

(e) The principles of exclusion for teams and individuals shall be in accordance with the WADA Code.

(f) A medal may be withdrawn by order of the Executive Committee on the proposal of the Chairman of the Organizing Committee.

(g) A Medical Commission within the South East Asian Games Federation Medical Committee will be set up to implement these rules. Members of which would be nominated by their respective NOC, as approved by the Medical Commission of the SEAG Federation.

(h) The above regulations shall in no way affect further sanctions by the International Federation.

PROGRAMME

34 The sports programme adopted for any one SEA Games shall consist of a minimum 22 sports, with events contained therein to be determined based on the following criteria:

34.1 there shall be no artificial events, especially for those adopted team events, unless the same are already practiced in the Olympic or Asian Games.

34.2 a minimum of four NOCs must participate in a sport/event for it to be included in the programme of the SEA Games, with a proviso to allow varying the same as and when required.

34.3 with the exception of Athletics, Aquatics, and Shooting, other sports in the SEA Games programme shall not have more than five (5%) percent of the total number of events or medal tally.

34.4 Following the existing guidelines of Athletics and Aquatics being Compulsory Sports, with a minimum of 14 sports from Category II and a maximum of 8 sports from Category III, sports programme in the SEA Games should give priority or preference to those sports that are already included in the IOC and/or OCA sports programmes.

CATEGORY I: Compulsory Sports

1. Athletics
2. Swimming (including Diving and water polo)

CATEGORY II: Sports in the Olympic Games and the Asian Games (Minimum 14 Sports)

If technical officials are needed from the other Member Organizations, to be invited to the Games, the Organizing Committee shall seek approval from the Executive Committee. Should the Executive Committee approve the request, the Organizing Committee shall pay their expenses for accommodation, meals and local transport for the whole period of the Games.

The technical officials and the members of the Juries of Appeal must have never been professionals in sport.
No official who has participated in a decision may serve in the Jury of Appeal that reviews it. The findings of the Jury shall be communicated as soon as possible to the Organizing Committee and the Executive Committee. Technical officials may not live in the Games Villages, but the Organizing Committee shall ensure and bear the cost of their living accommodation, including board and local transport facilities.

The Jury of Appeal’s decisions on all technical questions concerning its respective disciplinary nature is final. They shall, however, be without prejudice to any further penalty, which may be imposed by the Executive Committee.

The Jury of Appeal shall be composed of a Chairman, which position shall be filled up by the Host Country of the Games with a representative of each member country as members.

The International Technical delegates to the Games may be appointed ex-officio member of the body and shall act only in an advisory capacity, unless their respective International Federation requires otherwise.

In the event of a dispute or protest relating to technical questions concerning its respective sporting event, representatives of countries in the Jury of Appeal whose countries are involved in the dispute or protest may be allowed to participate in the deliberations, but cannot vote in the resolution of the protest or dispute.

COURT OF APPEAL

42 The Executive Committee on behalf of the Federation is the Court of Appeal, which will decide finally on all questions concerning the Games. NOCs or the Organizing Committee may submit questions to the Court of Appeal. In addition the Court of Appeal may intervene in all questions of non-technical nature outside the Jurisdiction of the Juries of Appeal set up for each sport in the programme.

CLAIMS AND PROTESTS

43 Claims and Protests made to the judges on the grounds concerning matters of fact are decided by them without appeal. Appeals against other decisions of the Judges or with regard to any other matter must be addressed to the Chairman of the Jury of Appeal for the sport concerned by a representative of the NOC of the country making the appeal.

For exceptional circumstances, any claim must be made within thirty (30) minutes of the decision giving rise to the claim. The Jury of Appeal after an investigation shall then give a decision and this decision shall be irrevocable, except in the case of the disqualification of a team or of a competitor for infraction of the South East Asian Games Federation which shall be decided by the Court of Appeal. All claims and appeals must be made in writing.

PENALTIES IN CASE OF FRAUD

44 A competitor proved fraudulently to have transgressed the Rules and Regulations of the South East Asian Games Federation, shall be disqualified and lose any position he/she may have gained. If this competitor’s NOC is proved to have been a party to the fraud his/her country shall be disqualified in the sport involved.

PRIZES
45(a) The prizes of the Games shall be provided by the Organizing Committee for distribution. They consist of medals and diplomas.

(b) The first prize shall be a gold medal and a diploma, the second prize shall be a silver medal and a diploma, and the third prize a bronze medal and a diploma. In any sport event where there are only three teams/competitors, only the gold and silver medals and diplomas will be awarded.

Diplomas but no medals will also be given for the fourth, fifth and sixth places.

(c) There shall be no tie for gold, silver or bronze medal placing. Should there be a tie at the end of a competition for the gold, silver or bronze medal placing, a sudden death play-off or any appropriate method shall be held to break the tie.

(d) This rule shall not apply in events where there is a no play-off between the losing semi-finalists or the bronze medal, or where the gold, silver or bronze medal placing is determined by electronic timing system.

(e) All competitors and officials in the Games shall receive a commemorative medal.
